

Call for Papers:

Queer Theorizing in Medieval Iberian Studies (A Roundtable) (ID:6051)

60th International Congress on Medieval Studies
Kalamazoo, Michigan | May 8 - 10, 2025

A quarter of a century after the publication of Queer Iberia: Sexualities, Cultures, and Crossings from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance and the La corónica forum, 'Return to Queer Iberia,' what is the state of studying the histories of sexualities in Medieval Iberian Studies? What vocabularies have developed and how are they useful? How have queer theories opened up new theoretical possibilities, including trans studies? What roles, positive or not, does or can anachronism play? This roundtable invites theoretical speculations on the uses of queer theories in the study of medieval texts and artifacts.

Your proposal should include:

1. Your name, affiliation, and contact information
2. A 100-200 word abstract for consideration by session organizers; (Note that roundtable interventions are briefer than formal conference papers—generally 6-8 minutes—and do not bear titles.)
3. Indication whether you require AV or other media support

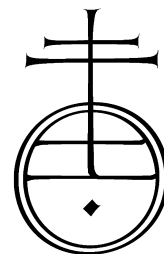

Submit abstract via ICMS CONFEX website by 15 September 2024:

<https://icms.confex.com/icms/2025/round/papers/index.cgi?sessionid=6051>

Organizers:

Emily C. Francomano
(Emily.Francomano@georgetown.edu)

Sponsored by La corónica: A Journal of Medieval Hispanic Languages, Literatures and Cultures

La corónica
50th Anniversary